Studio Theatre, University Center for the Arts

1400 Remington Street, Fort Collins, Colorado

$6.50, $6/CSU Students, contains adult language and situations

Caffeine is a fresh, uncompromising look into the love lives of today's college students. Through chance, everyone in Chris's circle of friends becomes painfully single overnight, and with the slate wiped clean, new and old feelings will be discovered by these college students. Loyalty and true friendship are defined in a real way guiding young love to new heights.

Playwright, director, and CSU student Andy Steinhauer likens his new work to "holding up a mirror as you laugh along with these uniquely familiar characters as they discover their own wants and desires. If you've ever been young, you'll get it. Caffeine is a show where you'll come for the comedy and music, but you'll be tethered to your seat by the familiar drama."
